You can reach to the meeting location by car, train and plane. Business meetings represent a significant contribution to greenhouse gas emissions and we would therefore recommend you travel by train and public transport wherever possible.

Travelling by train

International railway trips can be easily planned using e.g. the international web page of the German railway company:

See http://www.bahn.de/p/view/international/englisch/international\_guests.shtml

SIXTH FRAMEWORK PROGRAMME

Travelling by plane

The nearby airports are Milano Malpensa, Milano Linate and Bergamo-Orio al Serio. Malpensa is the most efficient way to reach Casa Don Guanella as the airport is situated to the west of Milano. Milano Linate is situated to the East of Milano while the Bergamo airport which is home to low-cost airlines is the least convenient of the three airports. We have provided below detailed information for travel from the three airports to the meeting location. Feel free to contact us if you would like us to arrange a direct shuttle between an airport and Ispra instead.

From MALPENSA (<http://www.sea-aeroportimilano.it/>)

Malpensa is the quickest option to reach the meeting location. From Malpensa you can reach Ispra by train or taxi, the distance being ca. 30 km. If you decide to go for the train option, you will need to go from Malpensa to the Gallarate railway station using a bus (ca. 25-minute trip) and then take a train between Gallarate and Sesto Calende (ca. 20 minutes). A taxi service is available just outside the station to reach Casa don Guanella (10-minute drive).
